* There is no Savings Account specific monthly low balance fee or monthly service charge; however, we charge a Low Balance Fee of $5 if the combined total of all savings, money market, checking, certificate, and outstanding loan balances within the same account structure is less than $1,000 on the last day of the month. This fee is waived for members who are age 24 and under, have a brokerage relationship with Logix, or qualify for the Silver, Gold, or Platinum level of Relationship Rewards for the statement period.

This Logix Federal Credit Union Account Rate Sheet is incorporated as part of your New Account Application and the Membership and Accounts Agreement and Disclosure. Fees may reduce earnings. See our Schedule of Service Charges and Fees for complete information on fees and service charges and other ways to waive or avoid such fees.

APY = Annual Percentage Yield. This Logix Federal Credit Union (Logix) Account Rate Sheet is incorporated as part of your New Account Application and the Membership and Accounts Agreement and Disclosure. Dividend are earned daily and are paid monthly on the first day of the month. Certificate Accounts: The Dividend Rate contracted for all Certificates remains in effect for the entire Certificate Term. The disclosed Annual Percentage Yield assumes dividends remain on deposit until maturity. Minimum balance must be maintained to avoid account closure. If any Certificate Account is closed, dividends will be paid from the date of the end of the last dividend period to the date of withdrawal prior to the assessment of an Early Withdrawal Penalty. 12-month Flex and Bump Certificates cannot be opened as IRA Accounts. Education IRA Certificates (aka Coverdell Education Savings Accounts) require only a $500 deposit to open, maintain, and earn dividends - you can also make an annual contribution (as permitted by law) during the term of the Certificate. * Your Relationship Rewards Tier is determined by adding together the monthly balances your household keeps with Logix, including Savings, Checking, Money Market, and all Loans and Credit Card balances. Please note Certificate balances are not included, and you must have at least one checking or money market account. Refer to the Relationship Rewards Program disclosure for complete information. Silver = $20,000 / Gold = $35,000 / Platinum = $100,000
