

What You Need to Know about Overdrafts and Overdraft Fees

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in the available balance in your account to cover a transaction at the time it is presented for payment, but Logix Federal Credit Union pays it anyway. We can cover your overdrafts in two different ways:

1. We have standard overdraft practices that come with your account.
2. We also offer overdraft protection transfer plans, such as a transfer from your savings, which may be less expensive than our standard overdraft practices. To learn more, ask us about these plans.

This notice briefly explains our standard overdraft practices. For more information, you should refer to the Overdraft Disclosures in your Membership and Accounts Agreement and Disclosure or your Business Accounts Agreement and Disclosure, the terms of which are incorporated into this What You Need to Know about Overdrafts and Overdraft Fees disclosure.

What are the standard overdraft practices that come with my account?

We do authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number
- Automatic bill payments

We do not authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions unless you ask us to:

- ATM transactions
- Everyday debit card transactions

We pay overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction.

If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined.

What fees will I be charged if Logix pays my overdraft?

Under our standard overdraft practices:

No Courtesy Pay Fee is charged if your available balance overdraft is $5.00 or less.

The following tiered fees apply if your available balance overdraft is more than $5.00:

- No Charge for any item/transaction of $5.00 or less;
- $10.00 for each item/transaction amount between $5.01 and $15.00; and
- $30.00 for each item/transaction amount over $15.00

The maximum you could be charged per day for Consumer accounts is five (5) overdraft fees totaling up to $150.00 and for Sole Proprietorship accounts is ten (10) overdraft fees totaling up to $300.00.
